Superintendent's Message

This yearbook is a mirror which reflects the image of our school and its activities and a record which aids us in recalling faces, names, and activities. Your schoolmates will live on these pages, through whatever they have written or done. You will treasure their laughs and rages in this book full of school fun.

Principal's Message

Dear Students,

The great leaders of our society have not become leaders overnight. They have accomplished leadership mainly by studying and working hard. Leadership begins its course in the high school and college campus; but the campus does not supply the results—only the hopes and dreams.

It is our sincere hope that you who are leaving us, and you who shall remain, will have established your hopes and dreams. We hope we have helped establish in you the desire to become the worthwhile citizen and leader you are capable of being.

Sincerely,

Nelson Pena
